Sun's Eclipse

Phenomena To Take Place This Afternoon

NEW YORK (AP) — Scientists and children, and people of all occupations and ages, joined in common celestial cause this morning—hoping for clear skies to see an eclipse of the sun. The rendezvous of moon and sun will be visible during afternoon hours throughout the continental United States but with the moon covering only part of the glowing disc.

Tape Recording Made by Gold Being Studied

Phone Conversation Between Gold, Birns Allegedly Found

CLEVELAND (AP)—Eight tape recordings in boxes on which were written names of persons reportedly recorded, and a desk memorandum calendar have been found among the effects of Marvin L. Gold and are under study by authorities trying to solve his brutal slaying.

Cuyahoga County Prosecutor John T. Corrigan declined to divulge contents of the tapes. But substantial portions of one tape dated last Feb. 3 and purportedly recording a telephone conversation between Gold and Alex (Shondor) Birns, 58, who police tag the city's No. 1 racketeer, leaked to both Cleveland newspapers.

After Gold's body was found stuffed in the trunk of his parked car July 8, his widow produced an affidavit in which Gold alleged Birns had given him stolen Canadian bonds as collateral for loans. No charge, however, has been filed against Birns as a result.

Earlier this year Gold had been convicted in federal court of using stolen Canadian bonds for collateral and he also was convicted of manipulating funds of a company with which he was connected. He died before he came up for a third federal trial on charges of defrauding a government agency in getting a $150,000 federal Small Business Aid loan.

In the published reports still not officially released, the taped telephone conversations that purportedly were between Gold and Birns brought out these points in a long and highly cryptic interchange:

That Gold was hard-pressed for cash and needed it to finance his defense and appeal in federal courts.

That Gold sought help from Birns in rounding up money from mutual acquaintances Gold felt owed him assistance, and Birns

Amusement Park to Admit Negroes

BALTIMORE (AP)—An 11-year battle by Negroes for admission to Gwynn Oak Amusement Park will end Aug. 28 when owners lower racial barriers at the suburban Baltimore park and picnic grounds.

Agreement in the dispute was reached late Friday night, only hours before integrationists had planned to resume mass demonstrations.

Under the agreement, the park owners, James, David and Arthur Price, promised to end racial discrimination at Gwynn Oak Aug. 28 and to drop all charges against about 380 persons arrested in demonstrations July 4 and 7. In return, the ad hoc committee set up for the sole purpose of integrating the 68-acre park agreed to stop demonstrations immediately.

National attention was focused on the park during the July demonstrations when many clergymen of Jewish Protestant and Catholic faiths were arrested and

Congressmen Prepare for Rail Action

But Most Doubt If Legislation Can Be Passed In One Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is tooling up to move promptly on President Kennedy's recommendations to avert a nationwide railroad strike but few members think it can act in a week.

Congressional committee staffs have done considerable research and hearings are expected to start in both branches within a day or so after Kennedy sends up his proposals on Monday.

Legislators said the length of time needed to pass a law will depend on the depth of the President's recommendations.

Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., chairman of the Senate Labor Committee, said it "would be moving mighty fast" to get the bill through in one week before the July 29 deadline.

But there was some hope that if Congress showed a determination to act by that time the railroads and unions might again decide to postpone the showdown.

Under an agreement made at the White House July 10, the carriers agreed to hold off instituting new work rules—which eventually would eliminate 65,000 jobs—until July 29. The five operating unions also agreed not to call a strike before then.

The President received a report Friday on the facts and issues in the dispute. Its contents will be made public today.

The President is expected to use the report as a basis for recommending legislation to solve the dispute and avert or stop a nationwide strike.

One highly placed member of Congress said he understood Kennedy would propose a narrowly restricted solution applying only to the current dispute.

According to this version, the three-man board headed by Judge Samuel Rosenman which previously made recommendations for settling the argument would be called back into the case. This time it would make detailed recommendations for solving all phases.

The work rules would be held in abeyance during this reconsideration.

Then there would be another 30-day period for bargaining by the rail lines and unions on these findings. Any items left unresolved would be settled by the board.

The dispute involves what the carriers call "featherbedding." They want to eliminate jobs, largely those of diesel freight freemen, which they maintain are unnecessary and are costing the rail-

2 Hurt When Car Is Hit From Behind

An Alliance couple was injured Friday at 5:40 p.m. when their car was struck in the rear by another auto on Route 62, four miles west of Westville and Route 173.

Charles Ohler, 75, of 816 E. Ohio Ave., is in Alliance City Hospital in fair condition with possible fractured neck vertebrae. His wife, Gladys, 56, was treated for whiplash of the neck and released.

The Lisbon barracks of the State Highway Patrol said Ohler had stopped to make a left turn when his car was hit from behind by a vehicle operated by George VanSyckle, 47, of Canton. VanSyckle was cited for failing to stop in the assured clear distance.

Four autos were involved in a sequence of mishaps starting with a two-car collision Friday at 6:20 p.m. on Route 30, about one mile north of East Liverpool.

Autos driven by Lester W. King, 49, of Cleveland, and Ronald J. Herman, 36, of Youngstown collided when King made a left turn in front of Herman.

King's car went out of control and into the parking lot of a busi-

Nikita Levels New Blast At Chinese Reds

Challenges Peking To Take Ideological Feud to the People

MOSCOW (AP) — Red China today accused Soviet Premier Khrushchev of capitulating to the West and of poisoning people's minds with his talk about the horrors of nuclear war.

Peking also took up Khrushchev's challenge to take the Chinese-Soviet dispute before the people by announcing it would air to the world both sides of the Communist argument.

Khrushchev, reasserting his claim to leadership of the Communist world, dared the Chinese Friday to go to any plant or collective farm and submit their program alongside of his.

Sputtering now, Khrushchev predicted that the people would listen politely, then tell the Chinese to "get out."

While Khrushchev raged against the Chinese in an extemporaneous outburst at a Kremlin rally, Soviet and Chinese delegates remained at odds in another session of their ideological talks in the Lenin Hills. They reportedly were trying to draft a communique to end the talks that began with misgivings July 5.

Khrushchev's challenge and Peking's reply reflected the apparent failure of the negotiators to heal the rift that has split the Communist world.

Khrushchev, following up Sunday's Kremlin statement opposing Peking's hard line, told the rally that survivors of a nuclear war might "envy the dead."

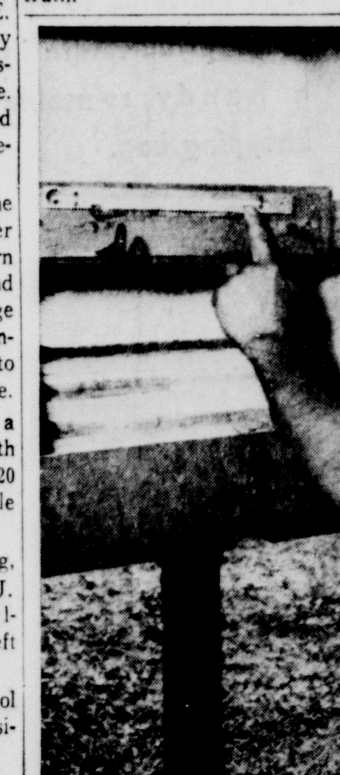

In Peking, the Chinese replied that Khrushchev's argument "confuses and poisons people's minds."

The official Peking People's Daily drew attention to Mao Tse-tung's statement that "mankind will definitely not be destroyed even if the imperialists insist on a nuclear war with the possible sacrifice of hundreds of millions of people."

The Chinese Communist party Central Committee, announcing an "epoch-making" plan to push its side of the quarrel, said it would publish and broadcast in many languages its June 14 statement assailing Khrushchev's policy of peaceful coexistence as well as the Kremlin's rebuttal.

The Chinese said they also would disseminate statements they said Yugoslavia, the United States and India issued in support of the Soviet position.

By airing all sides of the argument, the Chinese said it would become clear who was telling the truth.

NO WONDER IT'S HOT — If you think the temperature readings provided at the city sewage treatment plant are unusually high these hot, humid days, there's a reason. The mercury in the 30-year-old gauge has separated. Jim McLaughlin, plant manager, points above to the break in the mercury column. He and the other municipal plant employees are hopeful that the city will buy a new recording thermometer.

'Morgan's Raid Headquarters In Lisbon

At least one segment of the Civil War will be re-lived Wednesday through Saturday when Lisbon and the surrounding area celebrate the centennial celebration of Confederate Gen. John Hunt Morgan's raid into the north which ended when he was forced to surrender to troops near West Point, the most northern point that Confederate troops ever drove. "Morgan's Raid Headquarters" has been set up on the village square where tourists and local Civil War buffs can obtain souvenirs of that by-gone era.

In photo above, Carole Riddle tries a Yankee officer's hat on William Haffley, secretary-treasurer of the event, while Jimmie Deemer looks on. Haffley, like many of the Lisbon male citizens, has joined the "Brother of the Brush" club.

Jury Deliberates Nearly 12 Hours

Sailor Guilty Of Espionage Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — Navy Yeoman Nelson C. Drummond has been convicted by a federal court jury of conspiracy to commit espionage for the Soviet Union.

The stocky, moustached Drummond, 34, his wife by his side, blinked Friday night as the verdict was announced but showed no other outward emotion.

The maximum penalty on the conviction is death. Judge Thomas C. Murphy set Aug. 15 for sentencing.

It was the Negro yeoman's second trial on the charges. The first trial ended in a hung jury.

The second jury—10 men and two women one of the latter a Negro—deliberated 11 hours and 40 minutes before bringing in its verdict on the first count of the two-count indictment.

Murphy declared a mistrial on the second count, which charged

Drummond with actually committing espionage acts at the time of his arrest last Sept. 28 in Larchmont, N.Y. The jury reported that it was unable to reach agreement on that count.

On the first count, Drummond

Selection of Miss Universe Set Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A Miss Universe pageant plagued by a missing contestant, a freak car accident, an appendectomy and heat, went into final rehearsals for tonight's crowning.

One of the 15 finalists will be crowned Miss Universe of 1963 by Norma Beatriz Nolan of Argentina on a nationally-televized program (CBS-10 p.m. EST).

While pageant officials, with the help of four interpreters, put the 92 lovelies through their paces Miss Nolan planned to visit her predecessor in the hospital.

Former Queen Markene Schmidt of Germany, the wife of actor Ty Hardin was stricken with acute appendicitis Thursday. She hoped to attend tonight's festivities in a wheelchair, but doctors said the stately blonde would still be in bed.

Miss England, Susan Pratt, was in the same hospital, recovering from a hairline fracture of her left leg. A car bumped into the pretty blonde the night she arrived. Susan planned to watch the pageant on television.

One of the contestants, Miss Dahomey, never showed up. Pageant headquarters announced sev-

Just Practice

Plane Drops Dummy Bomb On San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Navy attack bomber dropped a bomb by mistake on crowded downtown Market Street Friday during the noon rush to lunch.

The pale blue bomb was a practice one. The gunpowder in it didn't explode. And it hit nobody. But it caused plenty of excitement.

"I used to fly a bomber in Italy," said Policeman Norman Ronneberg.

"I never expected to get bombed in the streets of San Francisco."

"It looked like a shotgun had blown a three-inch hole through my office window," said Bob Cuyler of Menlo Park, an executive on the seventh floor of the eight-story, glass-walled IBM Building.

The 25-pound bomb came loose as Lt. R. A. Kiner of Anaheim, Calif., headed his A4A Skyhawk toward a landing at Alameda Naval Air Station after a practice bombing run over California's Central Valley.

The bomb, falling 25,000 feet, missed the crowded sidewalks and gouged a hole in the Middle of Market Street a foot wide and four inches deep. Then it bounced in a 300-foot arc over a five-story building while a fragment hit Cuyler's seventh-floor office.

Next the Mark 76, Model 5 bomb tore a chunk of concrete from a cornice on the fourth floor of the Phoenix Building on Pine Street more than a block away. Then it thudded to the street and bounced against a Pacific Gas & Electric Co. truck in which three workmen were eating sandwiches.

"We heard the thump," said one startled workman, Cleo Fain of San Bruno.

"I got out of the truck and there was the tail piece of this bomb on the street about 10 feet away. Boy, next time we eat lunch with our hard hats on."

Diplomats Hint Several Confabs May Be Needed

Soviet Peace Moves Involve Too Much For One Meeting

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev's offer to ease cold war tension with a sweeping set of war prevention proposals raised hopes today of an early East-West summit conference.

Some diplomatic sources indicated the proposals involved so much that not one but a series of summit conferences may be necessary.

The Soviet premier offered Friday to back up a nuclear test ban agreement with a nonaggression pact and a system of airfield and railroad inspections to prevent surprise attacks.

He also gave the first official indication that U. S.-British-Soviet negotiations here are fast approaching a formal agreement to ban all but underground nuclear tests.

Khrushchev said he would like to see the agreement include a ban on underground explosions, but implied such a pact may not be immediately possible due to the impasse over on-site inspections.

Appearing in warm good humor, Khrushchev made his proposals in a 90-minute speech at a meeting honoring Hungary's visiting premier and Communist Party leader, Janos Kadar. The 6,000 persons present interrupted him repeatedly with applause and cheers.

Khrushchev's proposals may be elaborated later today when U. S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman and Britain's Lord Hailsham meet with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to resume their test ban negotiations.

With the test ban, Khrushchev said he also wants a nonaggression agreement between the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and its Communist counterpart, the Warsaw Pact. He first tied the two together in a July 2 speech in East Berlin.

Realizing a package deal would encounter rough sledding he opened a new way to negotiations by saying: "We think that the question of the form of the non-aggression pact can be solved without any great difficulties to the mutual satisfaction of both sides. The most important thing is not the form, but the content."

"The most important thing is for each side to display a willingness to ease tensions and to liquidate the state of the cold war."

Khrushchev said the nonaggression pact, together with an

3 File Petitions For School Board

Two businessmen and an attorney today filed their nominating petitions with the County Board of Elections as a step toward gaining or re-gaining seats on the Salem Board of Education.

Atty. Bryce Kendall and Gail Herron, whose current four-year terms expire at the end of the year, and Elliott Hansell, who announced his candidacy for a board post this week, are the first to file for the Nov. 5 election.

Board members Robert Campbell and Dr. Ralph Starbuck have two more years to serve.

O. A. Naragon, board president, will not seek re-election. He has been on the board 12 years.

A woman, Mrs. Byron Eells of Calcutta, filed earlier as a candidate for the Beaver Local school board.

January Target Date For Savings Company to Move

Officials of the Home Savings & Loan Co. of Youngstown hope that construction of the new Salem branch office building at the northwest corner of Lincoln Ave. and State St. will be underway within 60 days, according to D. Norman Eckfeld, manager of the local branch.

The exchange of title papers for the abandoned post office property, where the new savings and loan building is to be erected, is still in process. Demolition of the old building will take place soon after the company receives papers of ownership for the property, for which the company has agreed to pay the General Services Administration $75,500.

An architect will soon complete plans for the new drive-in office building.

"As to when we hope to move into the new building," Eckfeld commented, "we're shooting for next January. We'd like to be in the new place when the company celebrates its 75th anniversary."

County 4-H Band Officers Chosen

Members of the Columbiana County 4-H Band elected officers for the present year recently.

They are: Gail Herron, Jr. of Salem, a sophomore at Ohio State University, president; Lois Whinnery of Salem, a senior at Salem Senior High School, vice president; Mary Lou Wallace of Homeworth, a student at West Branch High School, secretary; and Donald Cope of Salem, a sophomore at Ohio State University, news reporter.

The band will appear in a parade at Highlandtown Friday where it will be in competition with other area bands. Later in the season, performances will be given at East Rochester and at the Columbiana County Fair in Lisbon and the Ohio State Fair in Columbus.

William Justice, a senior at Dana School of Music in Youngstown, is director.

Interested persons should contact the Columbiana County Extension Service at 113 S. Market St. in Lisbon. Members of the band rehearse each Thursday.

Progress On County Road Jobs Shown

Construction of the Route 62 overpass in Salem is 15 per cent complete as shown in the monthly report of highway construction progress in the Ohio Highway Department's Division 11.

Also shown in the report of the total three and two-tenths mile-ages under construction in Columbiana County is the two and seven-tenths relocation of U.S. Route 30 between East Liverpool and the State Route 170 Interchange which is well ahead of schedule with 71 per cent completion.

Work was finished recently on the two-tenths of a mile relocation of State Route 172 east of New Garden. This included replacement of an old, narrow bridge and elimination of sharp curves at the approaches.

Contract prices in the county total $3,423,886.

PROFESSORS EMERITUS — Walter F. Willcox, 102, and his son, Bertram F. Willcox, 68, believe themselves to be the only living father and son who both are professors emeritus. Walter Willcox received his title in 1931 after 40 years of teaching economics at Cornell University. Cornell trustees voted Bertram Willcox professor emeritus after his retirement in June as professor of law. The two men maintain separate residence in Ithaca, N.Y. "Young Professor Willcox," as he is sometimes known, will be a visiting professor at the Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, during the next two years.

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — A 47-year-old mailman, Henry Kuhn, died in St. Elizabeth Hospital in Youngstown Friday two hours after he was struck by an automobile backing out of a driveway here.

TO SHARE $500,000

CINCINNATI (AP)—Employees of Production Plating Co. at Lebanon, are to share nearly $500,000 under a profit-sharing plan set up by previous owners according to the United Steelworkers Union. A spokesman said the money will be distributed today under an agreement with Hyler's Inc., seller of the plate last year. Milton Keiner, who heads Gas Appliance Supply Corp. which bought the firm, has been in a running dispute with the Steelworkers, contending the old contract was no longer valid. The National Labor Relations Board is to rule on the dispute.

You can't see any farther ahead from the second step than you could from the first. But you know you are closer to the top.

And that very aptly describes one aspect of man's quest for spiritual understanding.

ONE SUNDAY IN CHURCH DOESN'T MAKE US CHRISTIANS. And sometimes a month of Sundays finds us still struggling with doubts and wrestling with temptations. Prayers don't always seem to have been answered. And parts of the Bible may constantly baffle us.

But the truth of the matter is that every spiritual step we take is exactly that — a step. It may leave our perspective unchanged for the moment. But it is bringing us closer to that higher level of life from which man's vision enlarges.

Until we reach life's spiritual crest, the most important step is always the NEXT. Join the millions who'll climb a little closer to the summit Sunday.

Quoddy Back For a Visit

It may come to pass that one day that the dream of harnessing the tides flowing into Passamaquoddy Bay on the Maine-Canadian border will come true.

But all who have come on the scene too recently to know how this dream has worked in the dream world should be advised not to wait.

Generating electricity by impounding the water that roars into the bay at high tide and releasing it afterward is an engineering possibility. But generating electricity, despite what the great federal government seems to believe, is a commercial enterprise. It is not something men do for the fun of solving engineering problems.

This came out a generation ago when Franklin D. Roosevelt used the Passamaquoddy project as bait in his astute political campaign. Like the tree belt he envisioned on the Great Plains, it was part of the something image he relied on for popular appeal in those frustrating days.

It could not be proved then that the project would pay; there were more feasible ways to generate electricity. It cannot be proved now that the project would pay. It is put forth by Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall for purposes unknown, one of which might be to save the scalp of a Democratic senator running for re-election in Maine this year, Edmund S. Muskie.

Genius With a Sure-Fire Future

It shouldn't take long to find out what happened to 24 million missing bushels of grain missing in a barter deal between the United States and Austria. That is too much bulk to have been hidden in a safety deposit box or even a warehouse.

It might speed up the search, however, if word went out that popular acclaim awaits the genius able to make that much grain vanish. He has a sure-fire future in a country that piles up surplus grain at the rate of hundreds of millions of bushels each year—piles it on the ground, in grain elevators, in box cars on railroad sidings, in bins, cribs and holes in the ground.

Every particle of this unneeded grain adds to the depressed market for grain and aggravates the problem of subsidizing far income. It deepens the economic scandal of paying exploiters to raise a food crop for no other reason than to clip an open-handed casual government for the guaranteed price or loan value.

Everybody who has given thought to the problem has longed for magic that would make the unneeded grain disappear. Inventors have dreamed of paving highways with it—doing anything with it except ingest it.

A genius is with us. Come forth, oh adroit one and practice your magic! While you're at it, make the butter and dried eggs disappear too.

Fear of Something to Lose

True to the skeptics' credo that no one gives anything for nothing, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen has lifted its ban on nonwhite members.

The ban had existed 87 years.

Its lifting at this time is only a gesture. Fifteen hundred Negro firemen belong to a segregated affiliate of the brotherhood. Each edge of the latter can blackball an applicant by secret ballot, and it is not anticipated that Negroes will rush to apply for membership in all-white lodges.

This is particularly true at this time, when railroads are waiting for clearance of work of firemen who, they contend, are no longer rules to permit them to dismiss thousands necessary on diesel-powered freight and yard locomotives.

But something else is particularly true at this time.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen needs to get in step with the AFL-CIO, which insists its affiliate cleanse themselves of discrimination. The brotherhood needs to get in step, also, with the trend of the times, which is running against the practice of segregation.

It has something to gain by banning discrimination against nonwhite members. This is always the most powerful motive for reform—the hope of something to gain and, conversely, the fear of something to lose.

Within Their Income

Although most school districts in area—Salem included—have approved increased operating budgets for 1964, the public's eye couldn't help but notice yesterday's stories that the Leetonia and Greenford boards of education had adopted fiscal measures calling for reduced expenditures.

Greenford's budget is down $30,000 and Leetonia $3,899—compared to this year.

The old philosophy of "If you don't have it, you can't spend it" still must be a workable formula.

Letter From Max

By Martin R. Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

Your piece the other day about how difficult it is to be sure of everything and never to have any doubts cut the ground right out from under me because here all along I figure I was right about a lot of things and you were wrong.

Don't get puffed up with pride, though, just because you raised some doubts in my mind. As you know, we all get perverse satisfaction from raking you over the coals, even when we are wrong and you are right.

As our pal Rochefoucauld said 300 years ago: "We hardly find any persons of good sense save those who agree with us."

If Rochefoucauld sees this, he can take umbrage at being described as "our pal."

YOU DON'T always get a chance to choose your friends, much less your enemies.

For instance, you said the easiest way to live would be to have unalterable convictions on such diverse subjects as farm subsidies and equal pay for women.

Then how do you get along with an individual who agrees with you on farm subsidies but disagrees with you on equal pay for women?

You compromise, that's what you do. Or you throw out the baby with the bath.

And this brings us to that dirty word "hypocrisy." At the risk of being called bad names, it seems to me hypocrisy is the oil that reduces human friction.

But just as too much oil can stall an engine, so too much hypocrisy can wreck human relations.

It might well be that the person who says he has no hypocrisy is the greatest hypocrite of all. A little bit of hypocrisy is a good thing.

YOU MAY HAVE suspected all these years that when I say, "How are you this morning, well, I hope?" I don't necessarily mean it.

Actually, some of those times I was so mad at the world I wished you would drop dead. And I thank you for all similar courtesies to me.

If everyone went around telling everyone else what he really thought of him, things would be even worse than they are now, although this is hard to imagine.

Dynamite has its proper uses but requires safeguards. Dripping water demands more patience but eventually it will wear away granite.

If you'll pardon my leaning on Rochefoucauld again, he said: "Hypocrisy is a homage vice pays to virtue." In these parlous times, virtue can stand all the homage it can get, from whatever source.

Well, Twill, you have figured out by now that what I have been trying to do is to confuse you as much as you confuse me, though I am a more susceptible subject.

You can look up your own quotations and toss them at me.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Futility of Equality For Negroes Underscored

By DAVID LAWRENCE

For a long time now, many people in the South have been saying that the newspapers of the North don't understand the segregation problem but something has happened recently which indicates that prominent new papers in the North—New York Times and New York Herald Tribune

David Lawrence — are beginning to understand that integration isn't as simple as it appeared to be.

Equal rights, for instance, are being found to be impractical if they are literally applied in education. Even the viewpoint of the Supreme Court of the United States—that a Negro child can't get as good an education in a segregated school—is turning out to be more theoretical than practical.

Perhaps the most realistic editorial that has been written on the impracticality of racial equality in the public schools appeared last Thursday in The New York Times.

THE FULL TEXT is as follows:

"New York City is doing some hard and needed thinking these days about how to give the Negro his equal opportunity in every way—education, jobs, housing, everything. That is good. But the Negro equally with the white man, should be wary of easy solutions, quick remedies that seem to promise instant success. One of these is frequently unjust and inhumane. It is the quota system.

"It has the temptation of surface plausibility. If the population of the city is 15 per cent Negro, why shouldn't the Negro have 15 per cent of the jobs? If the population of Manhattan is 25 per cent Negro, then he should have 25 per cent of the jobs in Manhattan. Easy, isn't it? But go on from there.

"If this reasoning were valid, the quota should be immediately applied in every business, in every industry, and on every level—whether there were qualified applicants or not. And it would apply to religions, nationalities—and how many other kinds of divisions? Every floor in every office building would have to have its quotaed shade of color, race or whatnot. To state the proposition is to show its absurdity and also its inherent evil.

"Now let us look at the public schools. With the best will in the world how, in Manhattan, can quota be achieved even if it were desirable to do so? Negro and Puerto Rican children in that borough total 66.5 per cent of elementary school enrollment and 71.6 per cent junior high school enrollment.

"Citywide there are 117 elementary schools whose pupils are Negro or Puerto Rican by 90 per cent or more. These schools cannot be made 'white.' A satisfactory percentage of integration can be achieved neither by bussing, nor by zoning, nor by governmental fiat, or by magician's wand.

"What is possible in this impossible situation? The Board of Education can do its best with the fullest use of the tried previous methods, which include the open enrollment policy of moving some Negro children to under-utilized schools in white or mixed districts.

"NEW SCHOOLS can and must be built in 'fringe' areas. But the best thing it can do for the Negro now is to bring him the best school that can be bought, with money and talent.

"Joseph P. Lyford, staff member of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions and author of a study being made for the fund for the republic, for nearly a year has been working in a 40-block area of the Upper West Side of Manhattan. The other day he said:

"In my interviews over the past 10 months with low income Negro and Puerto Rican parents in the area, never once has the question of racial percentages been raised as a concern. The parents' interests have been in the type of teachers the children have... and the various facilities the school has to offer. 'All this leads me to feel that there is a considerable gap between the concerns of the low income Negro families in my area and the avowed aims of various organizational leaders who presume to speak for them.'

"The novel idea was thus preterested in teachers and good sented that parents are more in-teaching for their children than in color quotas. It is to their credit that they are. The best thing the city can do for the Negro is to make the schools better."

The New York Herald Tribune just a week earlier—on July 11—said in an editorial:

"True equality doesn't lie in mathematical formulas, in the careful maintenance of a 'nice balance,' or in a reverse racism that seeks to boost the Negro through preferential hiring or arbitrary advancement. Racial quotas are as un-American as discrimination itself. They separate, they categorize, they label; they inherently contradict equal opportunity, because they establish separate ladders of opportunity."

BUT WHAT becomes of the view that Negro leaders have been expounding—namely, that equality should mean equality, that for all jobs held by white men there must be a certain percentage of Negroes working alongside them, and that the same rule applies in the schools?

Also, what happens to the views of those "moderates" in the South who have felt "token integration" to be adequate?

Anybody who has insisted heretofore that the practicality of the problem rather than theoretical equality must be taken into account has found himself classed as "racist" or a "Negro hater."

In the end, it will be discovered that the best friends of the Negro are those who want to see such changes made as will truly benefit and not injure him or his opportunity to enjoy "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Wage Restraint

W. P. Gullander, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, what the NAM policy would be towards unions, government, taxes and profits. The following definitive statement of policies reflects the opinions of 16,000 firms as told to Victor Riesel.

By W. P. GULLANDER
President, National Association of Manufacturers

A lack of adequate job opportunities is the one failing a free economic system cannot tolerate. Therefore, the unemployment rate is the most significant economic statistic compiled by the government and has the most influence on the development of national policies.

This is as it should be, but in developing policies to cope with unemployment we need to take a good square look at the factors which help or hurt job creation. Only then do we have a yardstick by which to gauge the effectiveness of proposed programs.

Jobs in the private sector of our economy, where most employment must originate, are created when the savings of individuals are invested to start new business ventures in the hope of earning a profit, or additional capital is invested in the expansion of existing businesses in the hope of increasing the profit.

Thus most jobs depend on the initiative of individuals in business or who desire to enter business.

WITH THIS FACT in mind, let's measure some of the existing or proposed measures to reduce unemployment against the yardstick of whether they encourage or discourage this initiative.

Let's take the shorter work week with no reduction in take-home pay. This would sharply increase the unit cost of producing goods and services and reduce or eliminate the possibility of profit unless prices were raised to absorb the added costs.

With higher prices, fewer goods and services would be sold and therefore fewer people could be employed in producing them. An arbitrary shortening of the work week would certainly not be encouraging to business initiative.

Let's take the idea of raising the minimum wage so those on the lower end of the income scale can buy more goods and services and thus create more jobs by adding to demand. This has been applied repeatedly, but the very people it's supposed to help are those in the unemployment categories which have been growing.

Instead of increasing their purchasing power, it has robbed many of them of opportunities to earn purchasing power because their ability to produce is too low to employ them at the legal minimum wage.

IT'S NOW proposed that we turn to make-work projects, aimed particularly at decreasing unemployment among people between the ages of 16 and 22. The "Youth Employment Act of 1963" now before Congress would set up a Youth Conservation Corps, with starting pay of $60 a month plus keep, and a "State and Community Youth Employment Program" which would put young people to work on local public service projects at the prevailing rates of pay in the locality, with the federal government paying up to 75 per cent of the cost.

If it were not for the government-imposed restrictions on employment, many of these young people would be able to find jobs in which private employers would be able to use their services profitably, and at more than the equivalent of $60 a month and keep.

Another proposed measure to relieve unemployment is the administration's tax reduction program. This places emphasis on adding to the buying power of those now employed rather than on relieving as much as possible the present obstacles to job creation.

A PROGRAM such as the one proposed by Congressmen Herlong of Florida and Baker of Tennessee would do much more to encourage individual initiative and the accumulation and investment of the capital on which jobs depend, and it would have far less impact on the budget and inflationary potential, than the administration's proposal.

For a long time, NAM has advocated a three-point program to create more jobs. The three points are simple and in keeping with the factors which make for economic growth.

These are: Revision of the tax structure to remove obstacles to the accumulation and investment of job-creating capital; restraint in wage demands so that greater productive efficiency can be translated into wider markets for our goods at home and abroad and avoidance of actions by government which inhibit business initiative and expansion.

If governmental policies, labor union policies and business policies are developed with these three objectives in mind, we can quickly overcome the unemployment problem and go on to more and better jobs and higher living standards for all of the American people.

U.N. Improves Specialized Programs

In spite of all its difficulties, the United Nations is now said to be beginning to find its way around. In the opinion of Harlan Cleveland, assistant secretary of state for international organization affairs, this is particularly true of the U.N. specialized agency programs in the developing countries that need help the most.

The popular impression of the U.N. is that it is as clumsy and unsure of itself as most teenagers. It is badly financed. It is not a well staffed as it should be because the principle of complete impartiality, international civil service has not yet been established. Also, the split between Communist and free nations makes complete co-operation impossible.

It may take the rest of this century for all these flaws of organization to be worked out by meaningful charter revision and the slow evolution of what U.N. can and do.

ONE OF THE encouraging signs, Cleveland believes, is found in the appointment of U.S. "Resident Representatives" to coordinate programs in countries being given the world organization's specialized agency technical assistance.

There are now 61 of these U.N. resident representatives serving in the developing countries. They act as top advisers to government officials in the countries to which they are assigned and oversee the work of two or more aid programs.

In some countries the resident representative is given diplomatic status and ranked as an important consultant. In other countries he is considered just a liaison officer or a technician with a special mission in his own field of competence.

There is no established protocol governing the rank or responsibility of a resident representative. None is a native of the country to which he is assigned. George Ivan Smith, an Australian, is mentioned by Cleveland as a typical resident representative doing an outstanding job in Tanganyika.

Present practice is for the resident representative to be appointed by the head of the U.N. Expanded Program For Technical Assistance—now David Owen of concurrence of the U.N. Special Fund director for preinvestment planning—now Paul Hoffman of the United States.

The idea is growing, however, that these resident representatives should be appointed by the U.N. secretary general and that they will become, in effect, U.N. ambassadors.

It is believed that such a development would give the U.N. increased status in the countries to which it gives aid. It would also simplify operations for receiving governments.

FIRST STEP towards coordinating the work of the U.N. specialized agencies has just been made in a recommendation to the State Department from its Advisory Committee on International Organization, headed by Sol M. Linowitz of the Xerox Corp., Rochester, N.Y.

Its plan is to put U.N. Technical Assistance and Special Fund Planning—a $250 million operation last year—into the program.

This is one of three reorganization plans being submitted to the U.N. by the United States, the first dealt with improving the

History Today

Today is Saturday, July 20, the 201st day of 1963. There are 164 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1860, the battle of Milazzo was fought in Sicily. The victory by the Garibaldians completed the expulsion of the Neapolitans from Sicily.

On this date:

In 1776, new members were elected to the Continental Congress because some had refused to sign the Declaration of Independence.

In 1879, Swedish explorer Nils Nordenskjöld sailed his ship through Bering Strait to become the first person to reach the northeast passage of the North American continent.

In 1901, New York City reported about 200 deaths as a result of an intense heat wave in the eastern United States.

In 1936, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt put all first, second and third-class postmasters under federal Civil Service.

In 1945, President Truman announced at the Potsdam Conference that the United States sought no monetary or territorial gains from World War II.

staffing of U.N. agencies. Some of the reforms suggested last year to Secretary General U Thant are now being put into effect. The final report, still in preparation, will deal with U.N. financial and budgetary operations which are still in something of a mess.

THE SIX WEEKS special session of the U.N. General Assembly just adjourned in New York failed to come up with any permanent solutions to the problems of how to make member countries pay their assessments.

As of May 31, 11 nations owed a total of $556,000 on 1961 assessments and 30 nations owed a total of $5 million on 1962 assessments.

The special session finally adopted a plan which will tide the U.N. over through Dec. 31. This year's assessments are now $11 million in arrears. But the same problem for next year will be back on the agenda of the new General Assembly convening in mid-September. It is generally admitted that it will take a long time to put the U.N. on a sound working basis.

Matter of Fact

When the Norwegian poet and dramatist Henrik Ibsen was young, his father failed in business and recollections of the penury which plagued the family can be found in "Peer Gynt." At the age of 15, Ibsen was apprenticed to an apothecary. It was a business he detested and to relieve his misery he began to write poetry.

Road Approaches To Lisbon Bridge Nearly Completed

LISBON — Columbiana County Highway Department is completing the two approaches on the new bridge over Little Beaver Creek, off South Market St. into Jordonville, according to Engineer Charles Snyder.

The two approaches were poured Friday and when dry they will be filled and a covering of asphalt will be placed on road from railroad tracks to north approach of bridge, floor of bridge, and south approach to improved street in Jordonville, and then the bridge will be completed.

The Lox Construction Co. of Wooster finished their work on the bridge last week and moved out. The completion date was Sept. 1, but due to good weather they have completed all their work on the $63,000 project which began last spring.

Official opening of the bridge has not been set but it will be announced later, Snyder said.

A cool front stretched across Northern Indiana and Northern Illinois Friday night triggered numerous thunderstorms through Ohio.

Rainfall amounts were locally heavy, totaling over one inch in last 24 hours. Dry weather will return to Ohio today except for showers and thundershowers in the southeast this afternoon and evening.

Cooler air will then settle over the entire state tonight producing fair skies and temperatures in the 50s and 60s.

Sunday indicates a pleasant day with afternoon temperatures in the 80s, skies generally sunny in most sections.

Temperatures early Saturday morning included Columbus 67, Cleveland 69, Cincinnati 63, Marietta 68.

Hart Keeps 3-Stroke Lead In PGA Event With 138

Palmer Slips Behind By 9

Mayfield, Boros, Lema Tie For 2nd

DALLAS (AP) — Dick Hart, a steady young man with plenty of heart, takes the same three-stroke lead he had after one round into the third round of the Professional Golfers Association championship today. The question is whether he can hang on for two more days.

The feeling is growing that the answer may be "Yes."

"Don't write off this boy," his playing partners during the first 36 holes, Bob Keller and Dick Turner said. "He doesn't shake easy. He's quite a player."

This 27-year-old assistant club professional from Hinsdale, Ill., is ahead of par despite the double extreme pressure of a demanding, heat-blistered golf course and the anticipation that his wife, Joyce, back in Illinois could present him with his second child any minute.

"I'm glad it's over," Hart said after firing an unspectacular but impressive 72 Friday that enabled him to maintain his lead over the world's greatest professionals with a 36-hole total of 138.

While National Open champion Julius Boros, Masters champion Jack Nicklaus and the likes of Tony Lema Doug Ford and Bruce Crampton fired and fell back, Hart calmly drummed a one-over-par round at the 7,046-yard, par 36-51 Dallas Athletic Club course with 15 pars, one birdie and two bogies.

It was good enough to keep him well in control of the pace—three shots in front of Boros, Lema and club pro Shelley Mayfield, four on Nicklaus, Ford and 42-year-old Manuel de la Torre, five up on a foursome of Gene Littler, Crampton, Bill Johnston and Doug Sanders and a whopping nine shots ahead of golf's glamour boy, Arnold Palmer.

It took a score of 151 or better for the two rounds to survive the cut to the low 75 players and ties for the third round today and the fourth round Sunday—portions of which will be televised nationally (CBS).

Cage League

Woody Deitch and Dick Snyder split 40 points to pace the Bearcats to an 88-46 victory over Tom's Sunoco in the Summer Basketball League at Centennial Park Thursday.

In other action, Spack's Specks trimmed Lisbon A. C. 64-58 and the Raiders whipped the Sophomores Stars 82-54.

The Bearcats chalked up their second straight win. The winners held a 38-20 margin at intermission.

John Borelli chipped in with 12 markers and Bill Beery connected for 10. Steve Balwin led the losers with 14 points. Bob King collected 10.

Spack's had to rally for its victory as Lisbon AC held a 28-24 lead at half time. Both teams now have 1-1 records.

Rich Arnold paced the winners with 24 points. Tom Bauman and Fred Ackerman tallied 12 points apiece and Bob Cook netted 10. Doug Duncan paced the losers with 20 and Roger Fritch swished the nets for 18.

Jack Ivan took scoring honors with 38 points as he led the Raiders to their first win in two starts. The winners held a 36-26 margin at the rest period. Therm Riddle chipped in with 20, Jim Robinson canned 12 and Lee Radler collected 10.

Jack Hurray tossed in 14 points to pace the losers. Rich Klepper chalked up 10.

HORSEPLAY AT PGA — Jack Nicklaus, center, gives a tug at the back of Arnold Palmer's trousers in an effort to remove Palmer from his knee. Gary Player, left, looks on, stopped, however, as the three settled down for play in the 45th annual PGA Golf Championship at the Dallas, Tex., Athletic Country Club.

Bucs Humble Cubs 9-4; Cincy Dumps Giants

Rampaging Dodgers Bulge Lead To 7 1/2 Games, Whip Braves 4-2

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Everything is coming up right for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Big Frank Howard puts on a show of muscle when it's needed against Milwaukee. And even fire-balling Don Drysdale beats the Braves for a change.

Howard, carrying an unimpressive .248 batting average but pure murder against the Braves, slugged a pair of homers at Milwaukee Friday night and Drysdale beating the Braves for the first time in four decisions this season.

The Dodgers have won three straight—and 21 of 26 since they began their surge four weeks ago—and they own their biggest lead of the year, 7 1/2 games.

Pittsburgh humbled Chicago's second-place Cubs 9-4 with a five-run eighth inning behind run-staved Bob Friend. The St. Louis Cardinals moved to within one percentage point of second, beating Houston 7-2.

Elsewhere in the NL, rookie Tommy Harper batted across all five Cincinnati runs and John Tsitouris turned in a strong pitching job as the Reds hung another loss on the staggering San Francisco Giants, 5-2, and Roy Sievers' two-run homer with two out in the last of the ninth inning lifted Philadelphia to a 2-1 victory over the New York Mets and pinned the 14th straight pitching defeat on Roger Craig.

Howard, Los Angeles' massive right-handed hitting outfielder, has collected eight hits in 31 trips against Milwaukee pitching; six have been homers.

He went after the first pitch by lefty Bob Hendley in the second and fourth innings, rapping each out of the park. That gave Drysdale a 2-0 lead, and the Dodgers made it 4-0 on Ken McMullen's two-run single in the seventh. Milwaukee got its runs off Drysdale in the bottom of the seventh, the first on Hank Aaron's 27th homer. The tall right-hander struck out 11 in boosting his record to 12-10.

Harper tagged Billy Pierce for two-run homers in the first and fifth innings, then capped his big night for Cincinnati with a run-producing single against Jack Fisher in the seventh. Tsitouris, won his sixth with a four-hitter.

The defeat was the ninth in 12 games for the defending champion Giants and dropped them into a fourth-place tie with the Reds, nine games off the pace.

City Softball Loop Sets Playoff Games

The City Softball League schedule should provide plenty of action during the weekend with the Class A playoff going on at Kelley Field. Last night's contests were postponed because of rain.

Tonight's action finds Moose facing Cranstons at 6:30 p. m.; Gold Bar battling Bliss at 7:45 and Charley's Boats going against Alliance Ware at 9 p. m.

On Sunday's card, a Class AA tilt between Parker and Stepaniec will start at 1 p. m. Pop's Igloo will then play the winner of Charley's and Alliance at 2:15 p. m.

At 3:30 p. m. Conser will be taking on the loser of the Charley's Alliance tilt.

A Class AA contest between league-leader Old Dutch and the Merchants is slated for 4:45 p. m.

Tonight's first and second game winners and losers will then play Sunday at 5:45 p. m. and 7 p. m. respectively.

Bo Belinsky Reports To Hawaiian Club

HONOLULU (AP) — Playboy-pitcher Bo Belinsky, a big smile on his face and a pool cue in his left hand, arrived in Honolulu Friday, 55 days and four hours late to join the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League.

He went directly from International Airport to a nearby night club to see an old friend, singer Bill Daniels.

Belinsky was optioned to the minor leaguers by the Los Angeles Angels May 25, but he balked at reporting until this week. He hasn't pitched a baseball in more than a month and a half and said it will take him 10 days to get back in shape.

The 26-year-old southpaw joked with newsmen at the airport. He was told by Islander pitcher Tom Morgan, an ex-Angel himself, that there would have been a crowd to meet him but Honolulu's newspapers were on strike.

"Yeah, that's why I came," he said.

Explaining the pool cue, Belinsky said, "I understand there are a lot of players in the Islands. I'm a player too—of pool."

Belinsky, who achieved overnight fame last year by pitching a no-hitter against Baltimore, was due in Honolulu Friday morning. He missed the plane in Los Angeles.

"Like, 9 a. m. is too early, man," the wise-cracking pitcher said in explanation. The plane he caught left the West Coast at 1 p. m. PDT.

Belinsky refused to report to Hawaii in May and was placed on the disqualified list. This cut him off the payroll, and he will stay off until he pitches again. It has been estimated the two-month layoff will cost him $5,000.

A's Knock Off Baltimore 2-0. Rain Idles 2 Games

Last Place Senators Edge Twins 6-5 For 11th of Last 14; Detroit Rolls

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Sometimes the most improbable things happen in baseball.

Such as the Washington Senators playing the best ball in the American League.

And a minor league failure like

Don Lock, who batted under .200 in the International League just last year, breaking up game after game in the big leagues with timely base hits.

Take Friday night.

The Senators, trailing the hard-hitting Twins in Minnesota, 4-1 after seven innings, rallied for four runs in the eighth and broke through again in the 13th to win 6-5. It was the cellar-dwellers' 11th victory in the last 14 games. No other club in the league can match that.

Lock slashed a two-out single to drive in the winning run. In the eighth he singled in another run during the uprising against starter Jim Kaat and ace reliever Bill Dailey.

The 26-year-old outfielder, purchased last year despite a .194 batting average and a history of never hitting .300 in six years in the minors slammed a home run his first time at bat.

That gave him 13 for the season, second high on the club. He leads the Senators in runs batted in with 47.

Kansas City nipped Baltimore 2-0 and Detroit defeated Los Angeles 10-5. Rain forced postponement of games between the Boston Red Sox and White Sox in Chicago, and the Cleveland Indians and Yankees in New York.

A throwing error by Twins shortstop Zoilo Versalles led to Washington's winning run. Ken Retzer, on base because of the error, advanced to second on an infield out and scored on Lock's single to right.

Lefty Claude Osteen, Washington's winning pitcher, held off a Minnesota uprising in the bottom of the 13th to gain his fourth victory in 10 decisions.

With one out Don Mincher, Earl Battey and Vic Power delivered consecutive singles but Mincher was out trying for third on Battey's hit. Osteen got Wally Post to ground out to end the game.

Tribe, Yankees Washed Out

Dick Donovan Faces Whitey Ford Today

NEW YORK (AP)—If the Cleveland Indians are going to give the New York Yankees a few lumps, the current series would seem to be the time when the Bronx Bombers are most vulnerable.

The Tribe and the Yanks were rained out in the first inning Friday night, and that game will be played later in the season.

Dick Donovan (6-6) of the Indians and Whitey Ford (14-3) were the starters for today's game as Cleveland tries to snap a six-game losing streak.

The Yankees' regular outfield is out of the lineup with injuries.

Mickey Mantle is recuperating from a broken foot. Roger Maris was released from a hospital Friday after minor surgery. Tom Tresh has a strained neck.

Typical of the Yankees, their replacement for Maris, John Blanchard, has been batting .333 in his brief stint. And Hector Lopez, subbing for Tresh, has gotten some clutch hits.

The Yankees were batting in the first inning Friday night when it began to pour. After an hour's wait, the game was postponed.

Mary Mills Leads Women's Open By 3 Strokes; Suggs 2nd

By HAROLD HARRISON
CINCINNATI (AP) — Maybe it pays off to have ailments when you play in the Women's National Open Golf Tournament.

Leading the field into today's final 36 holes of the $9,000 tournament is Mary Mills, a 23-year-old blonde with a back ailment which she says bothers her swing and which has limited her competition this year to eight tournaments.

Her closest competitor is Louise Suggs, the veteran pro from Delray Beach, Fla., who has been out of action for a full year because of ill health.

Miss Mills, who seems very nonchalant about the whole thing, tied the Kenwood Country Club course record Friday with a 3-under-par 70 for a 36-hole total of 141, five under par.

Miss Suggs clipped one stroke off par for the second straight day and now has 72-72-144.

Miss Suggs of course, has been around the pro circuit a long time and is a former top money winner. Except for her, however, the big name pros will have their finish cut out for them in today's finish.

Sandra Haynie of Houston, Tex., is back at 147, six strokes behind. Mary Lena Faulk of Sea Island, Ga., is another stroke back at 148. Jackie Pung of Daly City, Calif., is at 149. Kathy Cornelius of Scottsdale, Ariz., is at 151 and Beisy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C., who has won this event four times, three since it has been sponsored by the U. S. Golf Association, is at 152.

Far back at 158 was defending champion Mrs. Murre Lindstrom of Sutton, Mass.

In between the two front runners and the big names are two other comparative newcomers to the pro circuit. Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., who was tied with Miss Mills Thursday, had a 75 for 146 and Patsy Hahn of Wilmington, Del., came up with a par 73 for a 147.

The leaders (a-amateur): Mary Mills, Gulf Hills, Miss., 71-72-141.

Louise Suggs, Del Ray Beach, Fla. 72-72-144.

Clifford Ann Creed, Alexandria, La. 71-75-146.

Patsy Hahn, Wilmington, Del., 74-73-147.

Sandra Haynie, Houston, Tex., 75-72-147.

Mary Lena Faulk, Sea Island, Ga. 75-73-148.

Kathy Whitworth, Jal. N. M., 74-73-149.

Jacqueline Pung, Daly City, Calif., 76-73-149.

a — Phyllis Preuss, Pompano, Fla., 76-73-149.

Undefeated Thomas Faces Benton In 10-Round TV Debut

NEW YORK (AP)—Unbeaten in his last 19 fights, light heavyweight contender Allen Thomas makes his bid for national honors in a television 10-rounder with crafty George Benton, middleweight contender from Philadelphia, at Madison Square Garden tonight.

This is the Garden and TV debut for the 24-year-old Chicagoan who steps up from the small club and prelim ranks of the big-time arenas. His impressive numerical record of 19-1-1, however, has gained him a No. 9 ranking from the World Boxing Association and a No. 10 berth from Ring.

Despite the record, Thomas is a 13-10 underdog to the 30-year-old middleweight contender, a 14-year pro veteran. Benton is ranked fifth among the middleweights by the WBA and seventh by Ring.

Thomas has agreed to make 165 pounds for his 160-pound opponent. Benton is out to atone for his loss to Hurricane Carter in his own Garden debut last May 25.

The defeat snapped his latest victory streak at nine. His record is 47-8-1, including 27 knockouts. Thomas has scored 11 knockouts. The 10-rounder will be telecast by ABC-TV, starting at 9 p.m. EST.

Cage Instructions Are Slated Monday At Junior High

A basketball instructional program for boys from the 8th grade and above which will be started Monday at the outdoor basketball court behind the Junior High School at 7 p.m. was announced today by the City Park Commission.

This program is being started for the first time and is on an experimental basis this summer. Instructions will be given Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of each week through Aug. 27, from 7 to 9 p.m.

All boys in the 8th grade or higher interested in participating are requested to be at the basketball court at the Junior High at 7 p.m. on Monday, Dan Krichbaum, John Borrelli and John Smith will be the instructors.

The Park Commission feels that this is another step forward in increasing their recreational program for the City and offering boys a chance to get a better fundamental background in the game of basketball.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

A word from THERON at the Country Store

The Columbiana County Historical Society has had some plates made up in commemoration of the civil war centennial. They sell for a dollar and a half. There are not too many of them being made and they should become a real collectors item.

Naturally they will be on sale here at the Country Store. I haven't had a look at them yet but Roy Guy tells me they are very nice. We are to get them in later today.

For everyone outside the lucky zone, it will still be an interesting show, with the moon gradually blocking part of the sun's face up to some point short of total, then moving clear. Skies will dim a bit where the eclipse is great enough.

Canfield Fair Booklets Ready

The premium list for the 117th Canfield Fair which opens Aug. 29 and runs through Labor Day, is available to all exhibitors and other interested persons, it was announced today by Miss Grace E. Williams, executive secretary of the Mahoning County fair board.

The 80-page booklet which carries out the yellow and black color theme of the 1963 Canfield Fair, lists more than $42,000 in premiums to be awarded for winning exhibits.

The tractor rodeo which had been discontinued last year has been re-scheduled for the 1963 Fair, due to popular demand.

The rooster crowing contest which last year was introduced to Canfield Fair will be staged again this year, as will the extremely popular pumpkin show.

The hay and grain show will be housed in the building being erected near the west end of the Fairgrounds. Fruits which formerly had been displayed in the Home Arts and Crafts building will be seen in the Hay and Grain building.

Mrs. Lester Burton of Salem announces that a complete re-vamping of the Home Arts and Crafts building will provide much more satisfactory display of the exhibits to be found in that building, and that patrons of the Fair are certain to find viewing the displays much more enjoyable under the new arrangements.

The settlement was arranged by Baltimore County Executive Spiro T. Agnew in telephone negotiations Friday with both sides and with the County Human Relations Commission.

He said the agreement was a verbal one "under which the good faith of the ad hoc committee, the Price brothers and the people of Baltimore County are laid on the line."

He pledged the power of the county administration to "see that this experiment does work."

Valerian Zorin, Soviet deputy foreign minister, told a reporter the test ban talks may conclude by the middle or end of next week.

The talks, which began July 15, originally were expected to last about 10 days.

was found guilty of conspiring with four Soviet agents in a plot to provide military data, including information on naval weapons systems, maintenance of submarines and electronic equipment.

Drummond admitted during the trial, which started July 8, that he got between $20,000 and $24,000 from Soviet agents over several years. He claimed that the material he sold them was not classified and was harmless.

Drummond, a native of Baltimore, served 16 years in the Navy. His basic salary was $129.95 a month. At the same time he owned a bar and grill in Newport, R.I., where he was stationed.

Drummond was arrested outside a Larchmont diner. FBI agents said he was in the act of passing information to two secretaries of the Soviet United Nations mission. The pair were recalled from this country a few days later.
